

Indy at 200: Looking to the Future, Learning from the Past

You are invited to contribute your knowledge and experience with colleagues from around the state! The 2020 SIA Annual Meeting will be held in Indianapolis, Indiana at the University of Indianapolis, Schwitzer Student Center on Friday, April 17th. We are looking for individual speakers, co-presenters, and panels. Speakers do not need to be SIA members. Students and new professionals are encouraged to submit a proposal. Sessions last approximately 35 minutes with at least 10 minutes for open discussion.

Possible topics to consider:

- | | |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| Access | K-12 Initiatives |
| Advocacy | Linked Data |
| Born Digital Materials | Lone Arranger Topics |
| Copyright | Outreach |
| Digital Preservation | Teaching with Primary Sources |
| Digitization | Transparency |
| Documenting Underrepresented Communities | Usability |
| Exhibits | Volunteer Programs |
| Grant Writing | |

Proposals should be sent to Kelley Brenneman, Program Committee Chair, at kbrenneman@acpl.lib.in.us. Please include a session title, brief description of the session (250 words or less), and name and contact information for all speakers. The deadline is December 13, 2019.

UNIVERSITY of
INDIANAPOLIS®

